VOL. XVIII.—NO. 5564. PORTLAND, OREGON: FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 1879. PRICE—TEN CENTS.

GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Snow Storm in New York.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—A snow storm which set in early last night and continues, and gives promise of enduring.

A Case of Mob Law.

CHEYENNE, Jan. 16.—A passenger on a coach from the north to-day reports that on Tuesday a party of soldiers found the bodies of two unknown men near the Fort Laramie and Fort McKinney road. One was hanging to a tree and the other was lying on the ground. It is supposed that they were horse or cattle thieves hanged by ranchmen, who being short of rope, hanged one, and when dead cut him down and hanged the other.

The Missouri Senatorship.

JEFFERSON CITY, Jan. 15.—The Democrats in caucus to-night nominated Gen. James Shields for the senatorial short term over David H. Armstrong. The vote was 88 to 37. The nomination for the long term was postponed until to-morrow.

Hanged.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 16.—Martin Bergin was hanged here this morning for the murder of Patrick Burns April 15, 1870.

Alabama on Federal Interference.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 16.—The senate, yesterday adopted the following:

WHEREAS, Interference by officers of the United States in popular elections is justly regarded by the people of this state as an evil of great magnitude, and

WHEREAS, The manifest purpose of such interference in part at least, is to influence and control the action of the state in selecting electors for president and vice president of the United States, therefore,

Resolved, That the committee on federal relations be instructed to inquire into the expediency of providing by law for the selection of electors for president and vice president by the general assembly, until the acts of congress authorizing interference by federal authority, are repealed.

Military Convention.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The militia convention assembled to-day. Mayor Cooper welcomed the delegates to the city. The California delegates arrived yesterday. Over half the states in the union are represented. This evening Judge Hilton gives them a reception.

A Deranged Official.

There is some anxiety among lawyers regarding the mental and physical condition of Recorder Hacket. He has been ill some time. He received no benefit from a trip to Europe last summer, and complaints are made that his judicial decisions are arbitrary and severe, resulting from disease, and there is general dislike among lawyers to bring important cases before him.

California Raisins in the East.

A recent shipment of California raisins to here and Boston have been received favorably and are reported to sell equally with the best imported Malagas. Doubts are expressed if California raisin growers will be able to compete with the low price labor of Spain.

Richards, the Nebraska Murderer, to be Hanged.

KEARNEY, Neb., Jan. 16.—The trial of S. D. Richards, the self-confessed murderer of several persons, was held at Minneyaste-day. There were three indictments against him for the murder of four persons. The charge on which he was tried was the murder of Peterson Anderson in December last. He pleaded "not guilty." The jury received the case in the afternoon and returned a verdict of guilty after two hours' deliberation, whereupon Judge Gaslin immediately pronounced sentence that he be hanged April 26th, just the 101 days allowed by the law. The prisoner was apparently the happiest man in the court room.

THE RENO INQUIRY.

Testimony Favorable to Reno—The Custer Massacre.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—The Reno court of inquiry to-day decided that reporters might take notes. Lieutenant Wallace was cross examined by Major Reno's counsel, Mr. Gilbert. The testimony was only a development of that given yesterday. He related how, after the division of Custer's command, Col. Benton went to the left, Major Reno crossed the stream and General Custer remained on the right bank; how the two latter detachments formed a junction by Reno recrossing about twelve miles below and how, finally, the battle was fought. Some of Maj. Reno's command had never ridden a horse until this campaign. The only ammunition in the hands of Reno's force was the supplies at their saddles. It was used up in half an hour. In his opinion it was a wise act of Major Reno to retreat. To have remained would have been to imperil the lives of the whole body. Major Reno's conduct was brave and praiseworthy. During the retreat 25 men were killed and 7 wounded, and the time consumed was about an hour. Arrived on the top of the hill, Benteen's force came up, but the pack train was three miles to the rear. Reno showed no signs of fear all this time, but was conspicuously brave and fearless. No communication had been received from Custer, but a trumpeter stated that he had gone back. The ammunition was distributed, and Company D first met the Indians, several thousand strong, in a ravine of fine advantages, where the men were properly posted by Reno, who had about 280 men under his command at that time. Bullets came like hail until dark, about three hours after, when fortifications were thrown up. Firing recommenced about 3 A. M. on the 26th, and continued until 10 o'clock, when it slackened. There were probably 9,000 Indian warriors in the village that evening, it being two and a half or three miles long. They first knew of Custer's fate on the 27th. They discovered the line of battle, perfectly evident from the dead horses and corpses. Their position was not well chosen for defense. Around Custer was a whole company of men. There had apparently been an attempt at escape. The fight probably did not last over half an hour. Custer had 225 men when he separated from Reno.

The court decided this afternoon that it will not investigate the conduct of Benteen, whose name has been associated with Reno in this matter. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Potter Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Potter was absent when the committee met this morning. Morrison took the chair and mentioned that Saint Martin was present and could be called if the committee desired. At the suggestion of Cox it was decided to wait and hear what Shellabarger had to say before calling Saint Martin. Some discussion took place about placing Saint Martin's affidavit on the record. Without action adjourned.

The President's Opinion.

A delegation of the Society of Friends of Pennsylvania called at the executive mansion to-day. The president indicated that he did not think it at all probable that the control of the Indians would be given to the army.

Robeson on the Stand.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Ex Secretary Robeson was before the house naval committee this morning and made a statement in explanation of his course in relation to the completion of the double turret iron clad monitors.

Washington Paragraphs.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Senator Booth has returned from Savannah with other members of the congressional committee which accompanied the remains of Representative Hartridge to their last resting place.

Surveyor General Wagner has arrived to give personal attention to the Gardner charges against him, and also, it is understood, to confer with Secretary Schurz concerning the Kern county desert land case.

C. C. Bensin and George B. Hibbard, of San Francisco, have arrived to attend the annual meeting of the supervising inspectors of steam boilers, etc.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, was to day warmly congratulated by his fellow senators of both parties upon receipt of definite news of his re-election.

Grover to-day introduced a bill to remove the political disabilities of Wm. T. Welcker, of California, incurred by reason of participation in the rebellion.

Mitchell introduced a bill to establish a post route from Jacksonville, via Sterling and Uniontown, to Wright's, or Big Applegate, Oregon.

Mitchell to-day made an argument before the senate committee on Indian affairs in advocacy of the bill to open the Umatilla reservation to settlement by removing the Indians. He opposed Commissioner Hayt's proposition for their removal.

Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The senate has confirmed Roger S. Green as chief justice of the supreme court of Washington territory; Jno. P. Hoyt, associate justice of the supreme court of Washington territory; Geo. Hand, secretary of Dakota territory, and Lewis E. Payne, of Virginia, as U. S. attorney for Wyoming territory.

A Big Demand.

It is officially estimated that it will require $20,000,000 to carry out the provisions of the bill for the payment of arrears of pensions.

THE CHEYENNE BUNGLE.

The Cheyennes Getting away, and After "the Usual Delay," the Troops Start after them—Six Days' Rations for what may be a Month's Chase.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

FORT ROBINSON, Jan. 15.—There has been a temporary calm in military movements the past ten or twelve hours. The fleeing hostiles entrenched themselves on a mound on the White Clay, foiled the troops and at night, there being no adequate force to either force them to submiss on or keep them from running away, they escaped. When the troops next came up with the desperate band the latter had taken possession of natural mounds of protection on the north fork of Indian creek. Here the troops abandoned the pursuit and yesterday returned to Fort Robinson. To-day Gen. Crook sent positive orders for the pursuit of the Cheyennes to be continued, and Company E, Capt. Lawson commanding, left for the front. To-morrow Company H, Capt. Wessels commanding, will go forward and join the forces, and under the command of the last named officer, the pursuit will be resumed. The troops will be provided with six days' rations. There are 52 bucks, 2 squaws and some children in the fort prison, and of these there are 14 wounded, one old squaw dying to-night from the effect of six buckshot wounds. The captives state that while they had no hand in planning the escape, they are yet opposed to returning to the hated southern reservations. Here they claim they were told when surrendering, that they could remain. Here their parents are buried and their children were born. Thus far no order has been received for their removal. Aside from the efforts of the military made on the night of the escapade, to restrain the Indians, Lt. Cooke and Dick Dear were the most prominent in doing their share of the killing of the bucks. But one scalp is reported, and the credit of that is given to the citizens. Five soldiers have been killed or died from wounds, and eight are wounded. Thirty-two Indians, of which twenty-two were bucks and the remainder women and children, have been killed, and twenty-six buried in one common grave. It is believed that about 60 Indians, including Dull Knife, have escaped. Wild Hog, Old Crow, and one other savage, are in irons in the camp one mile from Fort Robinson. The Sioux at Pine Ridge agency have as yet made no demonstration other than in the indulgence of exhibitions of grief over their slain relatives. It is not believed among army officers here that an outbreak will be made; but if no better management prevails in restraining the Sioux from indulging in war dances than was exhibited in the capture of the Cheyennes, there can be no safe predictions as to the result. The Sioux say that they can feed the Cheyennes if the government can't, and would scrimp themselves rather than see their relatives starve. It will require evidence to prove that the hostiles were not permitted to escape. Companies B and D, 3d cavalry, left Fort Laramie this morning, commanded by Capt. Johnson, accompanied by a pack train, in an endeavor to intercept the Cheyennes.

On the Trail—Chances for the Indians' Escape—Cost.

FORT ROBINSON, Neb., Jan. 16.—Yesterday at noon Capt. Lawson commanding Co. E, 3d cavalry, started in pursuit of the fleeing savages, who are said to be making a detour in the direction of Pine ridge or Rosebud Indian camps. The prospects of their reaching the wigwams of their sympathizing red brethren are greatly in their favor, despite the sanguine hopes of the military to capture them ere they can reach there. The savages have a good 30 hours start of the troops, and should they succeed in stealing enough horses to mount themselves, which is not improbable, their escape is certain, and will be the means of getting the young warriors of the powerful Sioux nations to dig up the hatchet and avenge their wrongs. The prevalent impression here is that we are near the eve of a bloody Indian war. A mail carrier just in from Pine Ridge agency—Red Cloud's new location—states that since the news of the Cheyenne outbreak and its results became known to Red Cloud's people there is much weeping and wailing among them, and they say that their hearts are bad. Capt. Wessels, who started with his company at 4 o'clock this morning for Indian creek, will take up the trail.

FORT LARAMIE, Jan. 16.—Captain Johnson's command camped to-night at Silver Springs, 40 miles north of here, on the old Deadwood stage road. He reported that the Cheyennes when seen last night were six miles from Bluff station on the Cheyenne and Deadwood stage road, about 30 miles northwest of Red Cloud. They are evidently making for the station to secure a herd of horses belonging to the stage company.

The Great Hostile Band Coming South.

YANKTON, Jan. 16.—A Cheyenne agency special says: Last night runners from the hostile camp held a council with the agent at which council they talked very independently, saying that it makes their hearts bad to see their friends here deprived of their guns and horses. On Saturday they held a council with the commander of the post, Col. Wood, at which council they were very meek and said that all they wanted was to come in and they would give up their guns and ponies. They must do something soon, as the buffalo are moving and they will have to follow them. Ere this the entire hostile camp of not less than 25,000 people are on American soil and working south. The runners will wait here at Red Shirt's camp twelve days to hear from Washington.

THE TELLER COMMITTEE.

Testimony of one of the Bulldozed.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 16.—Before the Teller committee to-day A. J. Bryan, a colored senator of Texas, testified that no Republican ticket was nominated because of threats of the whites, who said they would consider such action a declaration of war. The night before the election a party of whites, including Buckner and Handsboro, came to my house, took me out in my night clothes, carried me a quarter of a mile, and threatened me, saying I had sold out to the Bland party. I denied this, and stated that I had not seen any leaders of the Bland party. They let me go, after promising to come to the polls next day and vote the regular Democratic ticket. I complied with my promise. The party had a rope with them, and said that if they were satisfied I had sold out to the Bland party they would put me through.

It has been so long since any family was murdered in Kemper county, that the Mississippi railroad are beginning to advertise the great attractions that state offers to emigrants.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.

Windom submitted the following:

Resolved, That with a view to the peaceful adjustment of all questions relating to finance and to the effectual enforcement of constitutional and national rights and the promotion of the best interests of the whole country by the elimination of sectionalism from parties, a committee of seven senators be appointed by the chair and charged with the duty of inquiring as to the expediency and practicability of encouraging and promoting, by all just and proper methods, the partial migration of colored persons from those states and congressional districts where they are not allowed to freely and peacefully exercise and enjoy their constitutional rights as American citizens into such as may desire to receive them and will protect them in the said rights, or into such territories of the United States as may be provided for their use and occupation; and if said committee shall deem such migration expedient and practicable, that they report by bill or otherwise what in their judgment is the most effective method of accomplishing that object, and that the committee have leave to sit during recess. Laid on the table for the present at the request of Windom, and he gave notice that he would call it up soon and submit some remarks.

Dorsey submitted a resolution calling upon the secretary of the treasury for a statement of all appropriations and expenditures from the national treasury for the purpose of paying the expenses of the Indian department from July 1, 1790, to June 30, 1878; agreed to.

The house bill providing for the payment of arrears of pensions was taken up on motion of Ingalls.

Kernan favored the bill.

Pending discussion the morning hour expired, and by unanimous consent, unfinished business, being a bill to amend patent laws, was laid aside informally, that the senate might continue with the pension bill. Considerable discussion ensued and a number of amendments were offered, which were rejected.

Morrill said that the passage of the bill would impose additional burdens on the treasury. The expenses of the government were greater during the last six months than they were during the corresponding months of 1877. If should this pension bill be passed, there would be a deficit in our revenues this year and the senate must provide, the treasury issuing bonds to meet the burden.

Saulsbury thought the bill was one of doubtful propriety, at least. He would do no injustice to soldiers, but the government had been liberal to the soldiers and this bill proposed to give them a mere gratuity thirteen years after the close of the war. Every person entitled to a pension had received one. While the government had been generous to the soldier it should be just to the people, who had been taxed beyond the people of any other country on the face of the earth. He thought the government had provided for the soldier and he now desired to see some legislation to relieve the burdens of the people.

Kernan said that if he thought the bill was a gratuity he would vote against it.

The bill was then read the third time and passed: yeas 44, nays 2. Not having been amended by the senate, it now goes to the president for his signature.

Saunders sent to the clerk's desk and had read a letter from the commissioner of Indians affairs in regard to his remarks in debate in the senate on the Indian appropriation bill, to the effect that the Nez Perces Indians have been removed in violation of law. The commissioner states they were removed in accordance with the provisions of the Indian appropriation act for that year.

The senate then resumed consideration of unfinished business, being a bill to amend the patent laws, the pending question, Allison's motion to strike out of Matthews' substitute for section 4887 the following: No accounts of profits or savings shall in any case be allowed, but evidence thereof may be admitted as tending to prove what shall be deemed a reasonable license fee, as compensation for infringement. The vote resulted, yeas 6, nays 32. No quorum.

On voting a call of the senate was ordered. After the quorum responded the senate proceeded to the consideration of executive business, and when the doors were reopened house bills to facilitate refunding the national debt and to authorize the issue of certificates of deposit in aid of refunding the public debt and house bill to make U. S. notes receivable for imports, were referred to the committee on finance.

The senate then took a recess till 7:45 P. M. for the purpose of attending the Prof. Henry memorial service in the house at 8 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.

Upon reassembling at 7:45, on motion of Edmunds, the vice president was directed to adjourn the senate until 12 o'clock to-morrow, upon the return of that body from the ceremonies in the house, and the senate at 7:50, preceded by the officers, repaired to the hall of the house. At the conclusion of the ceremonies, the senate returned to its chamber, and in accordance with the previous order, adjourned.

House.

The speaker announced the regular order to be the consideration of a bill reported last night from the committee on ways and means to facilitate the refunding of the national debt, and pending the question, Miles asked Wood to yield for an amendment, subjecting all bonds hereafter issued to taxation. Wood declined to yield for the purpose, and the bill passed without division.

The house went into committee of the whole on the bill for the improvement of the Mississippi levees.

The house then went into committee of the whole on the bill organizing the Mississippi river improvement commission, and providing for the improvement of that river and the protection of the adjoining lands. An appropriation of $250,000 is made for the payment of salaries, and the committee which reported the bill has an amendment added, a section appropriating $3,871,000 for strengthening the Mississippi levees.

Gibson gave notice he would, if he had an opportunity, offer as a substitute an amendment appropriating $2,500,000 for the improvement of the Mississippi from the head passes of that river to the mouth of the Illinois river.

Robertson, of Louisiana, spoke in favor of the bill. The origin of the late scourge which had traversed the south might be traced to the overflow of the Mississippi, followed by a hot summer.

Ellis submitted an amendment as a substitute appropriating $4,850,000 for the purpose of repairing the levees of the Mississippi and improving the navigation of that river, such money to be expended under the direction of the chief engineer of the army.

The previous question was then seconded, and the vote will be taken on Thursday.

OREGON.

Jacksonville has the champion suck-egg, a blacksmith named Bowen scored fifty at one sitting.

A hotel building three stories high, and to occupy a space of 20x100 feet, will be built at the Dalles.

J. H. Sharon of Pendleton has been appointed administrator of the estate of J. T. Coomes, who, it will be remembered, was killed by the Indians last July.

Hereafter the mail service from East Portland to Eagle creek, Clackamas county, will be increased to a tri-weekly, leaving the former place every Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Fire broke out in the store of Hodges & Wilson, at Prineville, on the night of the 3d and destroyed the building with all its contents. The owners slept in the store and barely escaped with their lives. Their loss is estimated to be in the neighborhood of $15,000, of which $10 000 is covered by insurance.

Pendleton East Oregonian: On New Year's day Mr. W. H. Marshall, ex county treasurer of this county, and Ed. Hinson, a young man, were out hunting cattle, when they were chased and threatened by Peo, son of the Umatilla chief Wimpo Smoot, who called them all sorts of names and told Mr. Marshall that if he had been any other man he would have killed him. A very small pocket pistol was drawn by Ed. and the murderous red devil held in check.

RESOLUTIONS.

HALL OF WEST UNION GRANGE, Saturday, Jan. 11, 1879.

WHEREAS, It has pleased God in His All-wise Providence to call from our midst by death, our worthy and beloved sister, Mrs. Sarah J. Lenox, who has been a worthy sister of Grange No. 12 P. of H.; and

WHEREAS, We, the members of said grange, while desiring to submit to God's will on this trying and mournful occasion, feel deeply the loss of her who by her love to all, and more especially her family and husband, as well as her unestimable assistance in our grange, has proved herself a worthy member thereof; therefore,

Resolved, That we offer heartfelt sympathy to the afflicted husband and orphan children, as well as the relatives of the deceased in this sad bereavement with which they have been visited, and we as members of said grange assure her that the many virtues which so highly commended her to us will long be cherished and remembered in our midst.

Resolved, That THE OREGONIAN be requested to publish these resolutions, and a copy be sent the bereaved family in token of our remembrance.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA.

Affairs of the Pioneer Bank.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—The advisory committee of depositors of the Pioneer Bank have made an elaborate report, in which they review all the proceedings in the case since and preceding the failure of the bank. The amount of the report is that depositors have very little show to recover anything except the sum of $85,000 due from the Safe Deposit Company in overdraft, for which suit has been commenced, which the committee hope to win. There are some items in the way of suburban real estate from which a few thousand dollars may be ultimately realized, but at present there is no sale for such property and the most of it is more or less encumbered.

Republican Movement in California.

The executive committee of the regular Republican county committee, P. E. Cornwall, chairman, held a meeting this evening and decided to issue an address to the Republican voters of the state urging straight Republican nominations. The county committee will hold a meeting next week.

IDAHO.

Legislative Troubles in Idaho.

BOISE CITY, Jan. 15.—The legislature is still in statu quo. The council perfected a temporary organization on the 14th, the second day of the session, by electing Geo. L. Shoup, a Republican of Lemhi county, president pro tem, J. W. Garrett, of Boise county, secretary, and Orlando Robbins, of Ada county, sergeant-at-arms, and to-day proceeded to a permanent organization by electing F. B. Willey, a Republican of Idaho county, president. The council stands 7 Republicans and 6 Democrats. The members of the assembly stand 12 Republicans and 12 Democrats. Two members are absent and will not be present, so it takes 14 for a quorum. The Democrats have formed a pretended organization by taking in two outsiders from Oneida county who claim the seats of two members who hold regular certificates, and ask to be recognized by the council, which the council refuses. The 12 Republican members meet in the supreme court library room and adjourn from day to day for want of a quorum. Thus matters stood at the end of the third day, at a dead lock.

The Weather.

The heaviest snow storm is prevailing which we have experienced for four years. Hay and grain is scarce and a great deal of stock will die.

Weather and Politics in Idaho.

SILVER CITY, Jan. 16.—Heavy snow storms and unprecedented cold weather create considerable alarm among stock men, who have reason to fear that a large number of cattle will perish before milder weather sets in. There is much indignation among the people in consequence of the existing deadlock in the Idaho legislature, occurring in consequence of the part es being so evenly divided. The feeling is general that the members should go to work and strive to do something for the territory, instead of fretting away time in party squabbles, in which nothing of any consequence is to be gained.

UTAH.

The Mormon Decision in Utah.

OGDEN, Jan. 16.—An expression of opinion invited from John Taylor, president of the Mormon church, regarding the supreme court decision in the Reynolds' case, was without response. Mormon papers claim that the law is wrong, and that the decision of the supreme court is wrong. Nothing is said about obedience to the law in future.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Victoria City Election.

VICTORIA, Jan. 15.—The municipal election was held yesterday. Mr. J. H. Turner, was elected mayor by acclamation. The following comprise the new council: Mar sell, Rome, Walker, Thomson, McLean, Smith and Williams. The defeat of last years' counsellors who sought re-election is a victory for reform.

Death of a Miner.

Thomas Pattullo, a successful pioneer miner of Cariboo, died at Barkersville on the 8th inst. He came to this country in 1861, and has owned in several rich mining claims.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

French Political Policy.

VERSAILLES, Jan. 16.—In the chamber of deputies this afternoon De Marcere, minister of the interior, read a ministerial declaration. It says the senatorial elections are a striking indication of the adhesion of the people to the republican policy, and alludes favorably to the work of the Berlin congress, and hopefully to its execution and the results of the treaty of Berlin. It refers to the pardons to communists already granted and promises further extension of clemency.

Another Railway Accident in Russia.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—A St. Petersburg letter, dated January 11th, says that a collision occurred on the Warsaw railway, 30 miles from St. Petersburg, on the 10th inst., by which 20 persons were killed and 32 injured, 21 dangerously.

Fatal Railroad Accident in Russia.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—A dispatch from Philippopolis states that a railway train fell into the river Arda last Saturday, and that a Russian general and several other officers and two hundred men were drowned. The accident was caused by the breaking down of a bridge.

French Ministerial Troubles.

A Paris dispatch says the left have fully made up their minds to have the ministers and are determined to remove all but Republicans from office and to carry out the wish of the electoral body, specially as regards the ministry of war. General Farre who was proposed by Lufaure, was nominated as minister, but President MacMahon refused to sanction his appointment and threatened to resign if it was insisted on. M. Dufaure yielded and assented to the appointment of Gen. Gresseley. All persons acquainted with the relations between President MacMahon and Gen. Gresseley are aware that the appointment is equivalent to a refusal to allow the chambers to have proper constitutional control over the office. As long as Gresseley is in the office there will be no reforms and no changes in the great military commands. The marshal retains his hold over the administration of the army which the chambers claim for themselves and which they are determined to have. Another Paris correspondent regards the situation as very critical. The overthrow of the cabinet, he says, would lead to President MacMahon's retirement, and the government by the extreme left with a revolutionary programme, which would profoundly defame society throughout France.

French Political Crisis.

All special correspondents at Paris of London newspapers speak of the situation in France as serious. A Times' Paris dispatch, though subsequently qualifying the information by a statement that the evening meeting of the Republican union was reported to be moderate in character, declares that the left appears almost determined to overturn the Dufaure cabinet, pronouncing it unworthy of confidence unless it publishes beforehand a list of intended dismissals of functionaries. The cabinet refuses to thus compromise its dignity.

Austro-Turkish Convention.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 16.—The Austro-Turkish convention will be signed shortly. It will leave Austria free to administer Bosnia and Herzegovina, continue Turkish administration and establish mixed occupation of Novi Bazar.

War on the Samoanites.

BERLIN, Jan. 16.—The German government, in consequence of the refusal of the Samoans to comply with its demands, has instructed the corvette Ariadne and gunboat Nautilus to exact satisfaction, by force if necessary.

A Swell Dinner for Grant.

At a dinner given at Place d'Elysee, the residence of MacMahon, in honor of Grant, among the invited guests were M. Waddington and wife, Gen. Noyes and wife, Miss King, Miss Stevens, members of the Chinese embassy, representatives of San Salvador, Buenos Ayres, Chili, Guatemala, Peru, Colombia and Uruguay, and a number of French generals and admirals.

The Discipline Bill.

BERLIN, Jan. 16.—It is said that Bavaria is the firmest opponent of the reichstag discipline bill in the federal council, where strenuous opposition to the measure is expected.

Won't Arbitrate.

LONDON, Jan. 16.—The colliers in Barnsley district are taking out their tools from the mines, having determined to reject the arbitration scheme.

The Railway Strike Over.

The conductors of the Midland railway have surrendered to the demands of the company, and the strike has been utterly defeated.

A SUPPER AND BALL IN HONOR OF THE YAKIMA VOLUNTEERS—THE LADIES DO THE HANDSOME THING.

YAKIMA CITY, Jan. 3, 1879.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Pursuant to notice, the ladies of Yakima City, W. T., and adjacent country met in the Goodwin hall at 2 P. M., Dec. 30, 1878, to devise means and ways for offering a free supper on New Year's to all the parties, whites and Indians, who assisted in the capture of the Perkins murderers and Moses, the chieftain. By motion of Mrs. David Guilland, Mrs. D. W. Stair was elected chairman, and Elojse Guilland secretary. Committees were appointed and their duties defined.

By unanimous vote the committee on invitations were instructed to extend an invitation to Father Wilbur, Dr. Kuykendall and families, and all the Yakima Indians that assisted, as above mentioned, to participate in the festivities.

J. W. Hambleton of Yakima City, was elected to deliver the congratulatory address to the volunteers in behalf of the ladies. A programme was arranged and resolutions adopted to be read at the next meeting. On motion the house adjourned to meet in the Centennial hall at 6 P. M., Jan. 1, 1879.

Pursuant to adjournment the ladies met in the Centennial Hall in the presence of a large assemblage. The house was called to order by Mrs. D. W. Starr, and exercises were had according to the following programme:

1. Music—"Hail Columbia."
2. A spirited congratulatory address, by Capt. J. W. Hambleton, of Yakima City.
3. Music—Instrumental.
4. Music—Vocal, by volunteers.
5. Reading of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to Father Wilbur for his well-directed action, wisdom and zeal he displayed in bringing Indian criminals to the bar of justice.

Resolved, That much honor and praise are due the parties who assisted the deputy sheriff in capturing the Perkins murderers and Chieftain Moses for their unfaltering bravery, for their obedience to the authority of their mission and for the good work they accomplished.

Resolved, That we bitterly condemn all acts and reports circulated in the press censuring and falsifying Father Wilbur, and all other participants in the move, that led to the capture of the Perkins murderers and Chieftain Moses.

(Signed) LADIES OF YAKIMA CITY.

The resolutions offered by the sheriff's posse are as follows:

Resolved, That we regard the action of Father Wilbur throughout the late campaign as highly commendable, and that any thrust at him or alleged neglect in this connection are unsupported by the facts and deserving of our just condemnation.

Resolved, That the good people who so generously responded to our wants while we were assembling with the treacherous and wiley foe, have aroused the noblest impulses of our nature and called forth our warmest feelings of gratitude.

Resolved, That the ladies who have been so lavish in their expenditure of time and means in providing the many delicacies of this evening are actuated from a warmth of heart which is representative of the equality of character and delicacy of taste and feeling which, so in the past, must ever commend them to our kindest consideration.

Roll call and march of volunteers, (posse) 95 in number, to the Goodwin Hall for supper, during which time the social entertainments were had in the Centennial Hall. After the volunteers returned, the citizens were conducted to the Goodwin Hall for supper, in all, making near 200 guests.

Social entertainments continued till 10 at night, after which dancing commenced.

We take this opportunity of thanking the volunteers and other attendants for their gentlemanly and respectful deportment on this occasion, also the gentlemen who so kindly assisted us in our effort.

MRS. D. W. STAIR, President.
MISS ELOISE GUILLAND, Secretary.

SILETZ INDIAN RESERVATION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

A recent visit to this agency impressed me with several facts which, in the interest of the peace policy and of humanity, I am impelled to furnish you for your readers. These Indians, under the administration of the last few years, have made great improvement in various ways. First, a large proportion have attained a desire for permanent homes. As a consequence a large number of comfortable dwelling houses are to be seen. They are built of lumber, mostly about twenty feet square, with good floors, and roofed with shingles or good boards. The work of erecting these houses has been done almost entirely by the Indians themselves, under direction of the government carpenter. About forty buildings, houses and barns, were counted in the immediate vicinity of the agency. Besides there are a considerable number on the upper and lower farms. Quite a number more will be built as soon as the mill can furnish the lumber. In several places piles of new lumber were noticed where new dwellings are to be erected.

Second—Many of the Indians love farming and laboring.

This is evinced by the appearance of their farms, which are en

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN 17 1879

A DEFENCE FOR MURDER.

Some days ago the announcement came that Troy Dye, public administrator of Sacramento, who caused the murder of a citizen named Tullis early last summer, in order that he might obtain the fees allowed by law for administration upon the estate, had been found guilty of murder in the first degree. The verdict could not have been otherwise, for the crime was unprecedented and phenomenal, and the proofs were conclusive that in all its horrible details it was planned with the most careful ingenuity and deliberation. Nevertheless the usual plea of insanity was set up, of course. Detailed reports of the trial, furnished by the Sacramento journals, show that an ingenious line of defence was pursued. It was just that sort of defence which, when addressed to sentimental and not very clear-minded juries, often baffles justice. In this case, however, the jury was made of sterner stuff, and could not be moved by the plausible and pathetic appeals of counsel, who exhausted their powers of persuasion in the vain endeavor to make it appear that the murderer was not a person who should be held to moral responsibility for his act. There even was an effort to turn as an argument in his favor the fact that the crime was so exceptional and atrocious that it could not be credited that a person in his right mind would commit it; and it was argued that a moral obliquity in the prisoner, amounting to a mental disease, had developed into an uncontrollable homicidal mania, and this was backed by the statement of physicians to the effect that for a number of years he had been suffering from a partial paralysis which probably affected important functions of the brain, and led him to contemplate killing in connection with the office he held, without having power to weigh his moral and legal responsibility for the act. This unfortunate condition of mind, it was argued, was made worse by the indiscreet utterances of his friends, who, after he had been elected to the office of public administrator, had frequently asked him in a jocular way "when he was going to send out his killers;" and when he felt the pressure of hard times, found the office was paying him nothing and spoke to that effect, he was asked "why he did not have some of these rich old fellows choked;" or words of that import,—all of which made a deep impression on his weak mind. The theory was that under these sugestions and incitements the idea of killing for such gain as he could make through his official position took complete possession of his mind, till he could think of nothing else. Under these circumstances the shocking murder was committed. His counsel further strove to strengthen the defence by offering proof that the prisoner had always been weak-minded, kind-hearted and quite harmless, and subject at intervals since 1864 to paralytic attacks of more or less severity, resulting in total loss at different times of his intellectual powers. All this constituted an exceedingly ingenious defence, in support of which it was easy to make a powerful plea to the jury. It was just such a line of defence as could be presented in a way that would constitute a most effective appeal to human sympathies; for, under the influence of modern humanizing tendencies the sense of justice is so strong that it will not bear the infliction of punishment upon those who are believed to be in such mental condition as not to be morally responsible for their acts. At the same time intelligent persons know that this theory of defence is liable to great perversion and abuse, and therefore in every case must be weighed well. In this instance the jury were of opinion that the murder was planned with too much forethought and skillful deliberation, and with too clear a conception of the advantages to be gained, to allow the theory of the defence to have weight. If so atrocious a crime, so deliberately conceived, and executed with so well-defined a purpose, should not receive the fullest punishment of the law, it would be necessary for society to abandon the idea of protecting the lives of its members by those severe enactments which experience has always hitherto found necessary, and which it seems unlikely can ever be safely relaxed or abandoned.

NO EXCUSE.

The only defence of Gov. Grover's school fund grabs yet attempted is an excuse that in some cases Republican school superintendents appraised the property on which the "loans" were made. Is it not perceived that neither this plea nor any other can excuse the governor of the state, who is the head of the board for management of the school funds, for taking out the money for his own convenience and benefit? His duty is to administer the fund strictly for the benefit of the fund, and not to handle it for utilities of his own. It is significant that all the loans on which the fund has lost most heavily were made in Grover's interest. When the head of the administration traffics in the public funds such results are quite to be expected. It is an unseemly thing for the governor to help himself out of the public funds on any kind of security. And when, as in this case, the securities prove to be worth less than half the amount, instead of three times the amount as required by law, the natural consequence of such transactions is clearly seen. Whether Republican or Democratic county superintendents certified erroneously the value of the property on which Grover got the money makes no kind of difference. It was grossly improper in him to touch the money at all; and it may be accepted as a certainty that never would such great sums have been placed on the property had not Grover been getting the money. It shows remarkable shallowness to suppose that these facts can be met by the statement that the committee's report is a "political verdict." If it is a political verdict it is a verdict of men of the same party with Mr. Grover.

THE TALE OF THOSE "SPEECHES."

It is altogether unnecessary to say that Hillery Cason is not the author of the affidavit to which his name is appended and which we print to-day. He cannot write anything, can scarcely read, and is much too imbecile to conceive a thing of this kind. He has simply done what has been required of him. The authors of this business are in the background and using him for a service for which they are quite too crafty to assume the direct responsibility. It would be wrong, however, to speak with severity of the humble instrument through whom they execute their crooked designs. His age, imbecility and station protect him from the criticism which his agency in this affair, as disclosed by the affidavit to which his name is appended, would otherwise provoke. It will be observed that the faults alleged, if committed were committed at a time when Mitchell was here. But this affidavit has been postponed till the present time, and is only now called for, because Mitchell has but just made the discovery that his only chance of effecting the removals and securing the appointments he desires is through some contrivance like this. Testimony as to the falsity of the allegations will be furnished, when the charge becomes a subject of official inquiry. It is really too ridiculous to assert that Mitchell "speeches" were detained and destroyed, when it is remembered by everybody what multitudes of them were delivered through the Portland postoffice during the few weeks preceding the June election. They were thrust, ad nauseam, upon every one. Some remained, no doubt, in the office, as well as in every other office in the state. The surplus of this rubbish should have been sold as waste paper, and if the postoffice people committed any error in disposing of it, here the error was. It is apparent that no one values Mitchell's so-called speeches half so much as he does himself,—unless we also except that other gentleman of culture whose name is appended to this affidavit, and perhaps a few more faithful recipients of official favor, to whom the peculiar grammar and rhetoric and ranting insanity of these great "speeches" appear undeniably superior to all the eloquence of the ages.

Mitchell sent out his speeches here by the cart load, expecting they would re-elect him to the senate. Finding himself badly beaten, and learning that some of the speeches, which were addressed to persons who were dead or had left the country hadn't been delivered, he made up his mind that this was what defeated him. Enough of those speeches were circulated to place one in the hands of every man in the state; but the man has never yet reported himself who would be willing to admit that he had read one of them through. Had the whole edition been dumped into the Potomac they would have had precisely the same effect on the Oregon election.

Further information regarding the matters alleged against the Grover administration in Oregon has been received by the New York World; and in its issue of the 9th, as we see by a special to a San Francisco paper, it says: "The explanation of Senator Grover was the only occurrence of much interest in congress yesterday. Nothing short of a regular investigation by a court or by a committee will satisfy the people (who now believe the charges) that they are trumped up."

Mormon journals are clamoring for President Hayes to pardon Reynolds, against whom the case went in the supreme court on the charge of polygamy, basing their plea on the ground that his is a test case, and it would be an injustice to make him suffer for the sins of a whole people. One of the organs, however, refuses the word "pardon," and calls for the "release" of the polygamous brother, saying that no true saint will "ask man's pardon for his obedience to the law of God."

Mitchell's organ clamors for the removal of Cole, of course. It thinks Mitchell infallible, and hopes to keep in position to force further contributions from official sources.

Democratic platform of last summer: "Resolved, That we are in favor of the immediate and unconditional repeal of the resumption act."

Thurman's Fate.

[Cincinnati Commercial, Ind.]

Thurman's difficulty just now is that he cannot show a good hard money record, and the Democracy must have a hard money man. The bottom has dropped out of the soft money party. Resumption is a fact, and the Democratic party dare not take the field against it. Thurman's theory that United States notes should be substituted for bank notes is anti-resumption, as all intelligent men perfectly know. Bayard is the "booming" candidate for the Democracy.

The Daily Oregonian.

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 17, 1879.

CONCORDIA CLUB.—The inaugural dress ball in celebration of the 24th anniversary of the existence of the club, which is composed of a number of the leading business men of the city, holding forth in Opitz's building, will be elegantly furnished and tastefully decorated for the occasion, and to which persons have inquired of the committee as to the propriety of their attendance, and to prevent unpleasantness and mortification to any evening will find themselves by reading the names, etc. One exception is that the members is that the ballroom is limited. The forthcoming ball is one of the most social affairs of the season, and a private affair, and no one will be admitted except those who hold invitations.

JACKSON GRAND JURY.—In the case of the State against Grant, charged with murder, Spellen, was concluded in the circuit court shortly after noon yesterday. The jury deliberated on the matter was submitted to them. The jury deliberated about two hours, and M., when they came into court and returned a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment, murder in the first degree. The prisoner was remanded to the custody of the sheriff, passing sentence of death upon him, which has not been yet decided.

THE CONCERT.—Already the sale of tickets for to-night's performance is very large, and quite a large number of seats have been sold. The best seats are in the parquette, which has been carpeted and cushioned, and will be very comfortable. Those who can not be suited above as we are confident the ladies of the Harmonic Club are requested to be in their seats by 8 o'clock, so as not to disturb the performers by late calls.

CHIEFS RAISED.—The Wenaha Tribe No. 4, Improved Order of Red Men, were raised to the degree of Chiefs by Senior Sachem Jennings: R. Clinton, senior sagamore; W. Wilson, junior sagamore; M. C. Kribbs, chief of records. The division of the ceremonies was performed to an adjoining room, where the newly raised chiefs were presented to the public in first-class style.

CALENDAR.—According to the Catholic calendar the following is the calendar for January: Jan. 19th, Epiphany; 25th, Conversion of St. Paul. Third Sunday after Epiphany and Fourth Sunday after Epiphany. B. V. M.; 9th, Septuagesima; 23d, Quinquagesima; 25th, Ash Wednesday.

QUICK TRIAL.—In the circuit court on Thursday afternoon the case of Lynch vs. Lynch, indictment for assault, was called up for trial. The case was tried and argued, and returned a verdict of guilty. The defendant was sentenced to the penitentiary for one hour and a half. He was then taken to the penitentiary for the term.

PUBLISHER AND EDITOR.—The Christian Messenger, of Albany, announces that Miss Mary Stuart has become publisher and business manager, and has been connected with the paper at the same time as literary editor. We hope that her business will be as successful as her literary labors.

WEATHER REPORT.—Observations for January 15, the following report: Highest barometer, 30.30; lowest barometer, 30.08; highest thermometer, 46; lowest thermometer, 32; direction of wind, south; average cloudy and three days.

ELECTION.—At the meeting of St. Joseph's German Society the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, John Hartmann; vice president, John Hartmann; treasurer, Joseph Hoard of managers, Weber, Weber and J. Yunker.

"MADE THE RIFFLE."—The steamer Emma Hayes left this morning for the Cascades in the river, and the steamer Wilson G. Hunt will follow at 10:20 A. M. The Hayes is expected here about 4 P. M. The same steamer will leave for the Cascades at 6 o'clock.

OVERHAULED.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt is now being overhauled and repaired. Some long needed repairs to the steamer and will be launched. In a short time she will be ready for service.

CONVICTED.—James Lynch, who was tried in the state circuit court on a charge of assault with intent to kill, was convicted by the jury after a short deliberation. The verdict of guilty as charged.

FROM ASTORIA.—The steamer Lurline left Astoria on Thursday for Portland, with Trenchard & Upshaw on board. The wind, tide falling and the river rough.

STEAMER LURLINE.—The steamer Lurline will not leave her wharf on Washington street for Vancouver this morning. The passengers will be transferred to the steamer Wilson G. Hunt.

OVERRULED.—In the circuit court on Saturday morning, Judge Boise overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of W. C. Griswold.

RELIGIOUS.

The Daily Oregonian:

CITY.

ARMORIAL CLUB.—This club will give their second grand dress ball at Turn Halle on the evening of the 24th instant. The club is composed of a number of the leading young men of the city, holding responsible positions in the business houses. The rooms of the club are in Taylor's building, on First street, and they are elegantly furnished, displaying much refinement on the part of the members. Many persons have inquired the object of this club, and for the purpose of promoting social intercourse, and to pass the long evenings pleasantly and profitably. A visitor calling in the evening will find the members enjoying themselves by reading, playing at various games, etc. One excellent rule adopted by the members is that gambling is strictly prohibited. The forthcoming ball promises to be one of the most popular and enjoyable social affairs of the season. The ball is a private affair, and no persons can attend but those who hold invitations.

JAMES GRANT CONVICTED.—The argument in the case of the State of Oregon vs Jackson charged with the murder of Dennis was concluded in the state circuit court shortly after noon. Judge Bellinger delivered his charge to the jury, and the case was submitted a quarter to 2 o'clock. The jury deliberated until about 8 o'clock P. M., when they came in with a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment—which is murder in the first degree. The time of the sentence of death against the prisoner has not been yet designated by the judge.

AT THE CHICKERY.—Almost every available seat for tonight's performance is already reserved with only a large number of gallery seats left. The best seats left are those in the gallery, which has been thoroughly cleansed and fumigated, and we recommend all those who can not be suited down stairs to try it there, as we are convinced it is the best place. The selections of the Handel and Haydn Society are expected to be ready not later than 7 o'clock, so as not to delay the hackman when calling.

NEW LODGE RAISED.—The following chiefs of Multnomah Tribe No. 4, Improved Order of Red Men, were raised up to their respective stations by Senior Sachem A. B. Hallock last night: R. Clinton, sachem; Levi Knott, senior sagamore; W. A. Hart, junior sagamore; M. C. Kribbs, prophet. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the members adjourned to an adjoining restaurant and the newly raised chiefs set up the bivalves and wine in first-class style.

CALENDAR.—According to the Churchman the following is the calendar for January and February: Jan. 19th, Second Sunday after Epiphany; 25th, Conversion of St. Paul; 26th, Third Sunday after Epiphany. Feb. 2d, Fourth Sunday after Epiphany—purification of B. V. M.; 9th, Septuagesima; 16th, Sexagesima; 23d, Quinquagesima; 24th, St. Matthias; 26th, Ash Wednesday, first day of Lent.

CRIMINAL TRIAL.—In the state circuit court this afternoon the case of state of Oregon vs. Lynch, indicted for larceny, was called up for trial. The jury was empaneled, the case tried and argued, submitted, the jury rendered a verdict of guilty and the prisoner sentenced to the penitentiary all within one hour and a half. Lynch was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years.

MANAGER AND MANAGER.—The Pacific Christian Messenger, of Monmouth, announces that Miss Mary Stump will hereafter be its publisher and business manager. This lady has been connected with that journal for some time as literary editor, and we can only say that her business management will be as successful as her literary work.

WEATHER REPORT.—For the week ending January 15, the following is the weather report: Highest barometer, 30.384, on Tuesday; lowest barometer, 30.065, on Tuesday; highest thermometer, 40°, on Thursday; lowest thermometer, 30°; prevailing direction of wind, south; average weather, four days cloudy and three days fair.

ANNUAL SESSION.—At the annual meeting of St. Paul's German Society held on Sunday last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Marcus Richards; vice president, John Donnerberg; secretary, Wm. Hartmann; treasurer, Levi Andersen; board of managers, Geo. Hartmann, John Wolf and J. Yunker.

PLAYING "THE RIFFLE."—The O. S. N. Co.'s steamer Emma Hayward left here Thursday morning for the Cascades. No ice was found in the river, and the steamer reached the Cascades at 10:20 A. M. Returning, the Hayward arrived here about 4 o'clock. This morning the steamer will leave for the Cascades.

DISMANTLED.—The old steamer Vancouver is being overhauled below the boneyard. Some needed repairs have been made on the steamer and Thursday she was towed. In a short time the steamer Vancouver will be ready for service.

CONVICTED.—James Simmons was tried in the circuit court yesterday afternoon on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon. After a short deliberation the jury returned a verdict of guilty as charged.

FROM ASTORIA.—The following dispatch was sent Thursday from Astoria at 9:30 A. M.: Blanchard & Upshur: Very light northwest wind, tide falling; cloudy and foggy; rough.

STEAMER LURLINE.—The steamer Lurline will not leave her wharf at the foot of Washington street for Vancouver until 7:30 o'clock this morning. The public will bear this in mind.

DISMANTLED.—In the U. S. district court, this Thursday morning, Judge Deady overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of U. S. vs. W. C. Griswold.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

[From the Advocate.

Rev. N. A. Starr writes from Roseburg that good meetings are held and a number of conversions and accessions to the church had upon his charge.

The new Congregational chapel in Holladay's addition to East Portland is nearing completion and is a prominent feature of that locality as viewed from this side of the river.

The communion service at Hall street church on last Sabbath was very interesting. Quite a number participated. Some eight persons were added by letter and others were added to the class.

The second quarterly meeting for the Hillsboro and East Tualatin charges will be held at Ames' chapel and will embrace the first Sunday in February. Preaching on Saturday at 11 o'clock, and the quarterly conference will convene immediately after.

Interested revival meetings are in progress at Hall street and East Portland M. E. churches: also at Forest Grove. At the church where the meetings of the week have been largely attended and a number have signified their intention to forsake and serve the Lord. The meetings at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A have also been largely attended and very interesting.

ON DECK.—Joseph Buchtel is at his well-known gallery, First and Morrison streets, and proposes to do photographic work in the most approved style. Call and see him.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN is just out

Steamer Oregon will sail this morning.

The Dalles mail reached her yesterday.

"Diplomacy" at Reed's Opera House tonight.

Manager Maguire's benefit next Monday evening.

The steamer Idaho will sail hence next Wednesday.

Salesmiths will be afforded a rare dramatic treat this evening.

The Hayward succeeded in reaching the Cascades yesterday.

Capt. A. P. Ankeny is a passenger on the outgoing steamer this morning.

We regret to announce that Prof. J. H. Brenner, the musician, is quite ill.

Since the opening of St. Vincent's Hospital 1,800 patients have been admitted.

Owing to its great superiority the WEEKLY OREGONIAN has an immense circulation on the northwest coast Buy a copy.

That price of scenic artists, Mr. Wm. Parker, is engaged in painting some new and elegant scenery for New Market Theater.

Mr. Wm. J. Bowden, well known in Portland, is owner and proprietor of the Daily Item, just published in San Bernardino, Cal.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN is regarded as one of the most complete newspapers on the Pacific coast. The current number is just out. Price only 10 cents.

A fellow named Weston was convicted of the larceny of a number of pictures before Justice Davis on Tuesday and committed to the county jail for 30 days.

The following vessels have finished loading: British barks Robert Lees, Wastwater and Brodeck Bay and the Norwegian ship Europa, all for the United Kingdom.

A Steinway piano with the new improvements will be used at the grand concert at New Market this evening. The public will have an opportunity to notice its unparalleled power of tone.

AMUSEMENTS.

DIPLOMACY.—Victor Sardou's justly popular sensational drama "Diplomacy" will be presented at Reed's opera house this evening, with the same cast as given here. The play being one of the very best of modern dramas ever presented in this city, ought to command a crowded house at Salem, as it is so very seldom they get such a dramatic treat as that which will be presented to them this evening. Mr. Maguire will take twenty persons from this city, including his full orchestra under the leadership of Prof. Bray.

CRAIGA DHOUL.—The management of this theater, ever alive to the importance of presenting the latest novelties to its patrons, produced last evening The Craiga Dhoul, an Irish drama adapted from Messrs. Arge & Vermond's "Les Remords du Diable," by Hart Jackson, Esq., adapter of the "Two Orphans." There is much in the play to interest the mind. In dramatic effect it is true to nature all the way through, and abounding in startling situations. No piece ever presented in this city can compare, in the Irish drama, in the same degree, with this wonderful drama, and the wonderful fertility of the adaptor's pen is most satisfactorily proven in its construction. In most plays the incessant change of characters would naturally tend to confusion, and the closest attention would be necessary to follow the story, but this difficulty is surmounted in "Craiga Dhoul," as each character is so realistic, blends so harmoniously with the other, the incidents are of so thrilling a nature, the climaxes so exciting, and the dialogue so brilliant and fascinating that the audience is entranced and spellbound from beginning to close, and for the time being, is oblivious to everything else. The play is one admirably suited to the powers of Mr. Pierpont, and he played in an easy and graceful manner. In fact we must say that if we are to judge from the enthusiasm of the audience, Mr. Pierpont and his play achieved the greatest triumph during this engagement. The company entire gave good support, but space prevents us from especial mention. This same play will be presented on Saturday evening.

PORTLAND DIRECTORY.

GENERAL DIRECTORY OF RESIDENTS, BUSINESS AND OTHER STATISTICS OF THE CITY OF PORTLAND, EAST PORTLAND AND ALBINA FOR THE YEAR 1879.

More promptly than usual that useful publication by F. L. McCormick, the Portland Directory, makes its appearance this year. From a somewhat hasty glance through its pages we judge it to be fully equal, if not superior, to any of the sixteen preceding numbers in completeness and correctness. It was compiled by Mr. S. J. McCormick, whose experience and good judgment have enabled him to arrange the work in very good style and in the most convenient form for reference. The printing is done by McCormick Bros. and is a very creditable piece of typographical skill. The book contains about 280 pages, and embraces, besides a large number of advertisements, a list of the residents with the name and number of their respective locations of Portland, East Portland and Albina; list of improvements made during 1878, table showing exports of grain to foreign ports, names and officers of all benevolent, musical, literary and scientific organizations, militia companies, lists of federal, state, county and city officials, roster of the Portland fire and police departments, all literary and news publications, times and places of holding the supreme, circuit and county courts in the state, and a list of all the religious organizations in the city with the name of he pastor, location of church building and stated times of public worship.

The above is a brief synopsis of what the book contains in detail. From it we learn that the present population of this city is 19,128, classified as follows: Whites, males, 9,555; whites, females, 6 742; colored, males, 410; colored, females, 56; Chinese, (estimated, 2,000; transient, (estimated) 500. A table showing a comparative population for each of the past 17 years is given and denotes the steady growth of the city which contained a population of 2 901 in 1861; 6 068 in 1865; 9,855 in 1870; 13,470 in 1875, and will have over 21,000 in 1880, an increase in population with which the business interests and improvement have kept pace and which show to be a source of congratulation to every true Portlander.

The directory contains also a list of the various industrial, mechanical and trade establishments in the city as well as the trades and professions carried on. This list shows about all the different branches followed, but not the number of hands employed in each. For instance, the boot and shoemakers are given at 13, while there are actually this number of establishments each employing one and many of them several hands. So with many other vocations and trades. The name of one establishment only dealing in carpets and paper hangings, is given, while there are perhaps five or six houses dealing in those goods, but not exclusively. The list of laundries contains six, whereas if we include the Chinese wash houses, there are perhaps ten times that number. So this work requires a good deal of explanation if one is expected to gain from it anything like a correct idea of the business carried on in this city. The list is as follows:

WHICH SIDE OF THE RIVER?

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN.

In THE OREGONIAN a few days ago, a correspondent signing himself "Westside," appears to think that the district fair we are trying to inaugurate should by all means be on the west side of the river. I will admit that if the land could be had in quantity and at a price that it could be reached, the west side is the place, and the Northwestern Industrial Association would be glad to find such a piece of land. Before the society selected the piece they now think of buying, they sent out two different committees who examined the westside thoroughly but they were unable to find anything that would half way hit the bill. There are lands that would do west of Portland, but they are three or four miles out and no way to get to them; and as below town grounds might be had, but it would take a mint to buy them. There were offered some eight or ten pieces on the east side from which the society made their choice. That they made a most judicious choice, considering all things, no one for a moment will doubt who once sees the grounds and takes into consideration the convenience of travel by railroad, road and river. To have plenty of room at an agricultural fair for race track, show grounds and camping grounds there ought to be 200 acres, or at least not less than 160 acres.

Now if "Westsider" will look at the situation in all its bearings, it makes very little difference which side of the fair is on, the main thing is the easiest and most convenient way to get to and from the grounds. There is one thing that must be taken into consideration in selecting grounds, that is the mode of reaching the fair. When six or eight thousand people want to go every morning and return in the evening, nothing short of a railroad will carry them. The grounds that have been selected are easy of access by all means of travel and only three and a half miles by a good level road, from the ferry. If "Westsider" and all the rest of Port and wishes to attend the fair this fall they can step on the cars every ten or fifteen minutes and get there in ten minutes. To be sure, crossing the river and waiting for the ferry is a slight drawback, but we are promised increased ferry time during the fair, so that people will not have to wait many minutes, and we hope it will not be many years before we have a bridge to cross on, then west and east side will be the same as one. Most people in town when going to a fair would rather go out in the country than stay in edge of town, it would be more of a change and recreation for them, and farmers would rather camp in a nice grove than in town. MITCHELL'S PRETEXT.

THE AFFIDAVIT WHICH HILLERY CASON IS ORDERED TO MAKE AGAINST THE PORTLAND POSTOFFICE—THE PRETEXT UNDER WHICH MITCHELL IS TRYING TO REMOVE THE PRESENT OFFICIALS TO MAKE ROOM FOR SERVILE TOOLS DEVOTED TO HIS PERSONAL INTERESTS.

The following is the affidavit which has been forwarded to Washington in the name of Hillery Cason to enable Mitchell to make his effort for the removal of the postoffice officials of this city

State of Oregon, County of Multnomah, ss.

I, Hillery Cason of East Portland, in the county of Multnomah and state of Oregon, being duly sworn, depose and say: I am the duly appointed janitor at the United States postoffice at Portland, Oregon and have held said position as such janitor for the three years last past. I have unrestrained access to the interior of the postoffice at Portland aforesaid, and am frequently and daily required there in the pursuance of my duties as janitor aforesaid.

In the month of August, 1878 I saw certain large numbers of documents or packets addressed to persons resident in Portland Oregon sealed and bearing the frank of J. H. Mitchell, U. S. senator, and having on the left hand upper corner the words printed, "Part of Cong. Record (Free) Senate, U. S." These packets or documents appeared to be printed speeches from their similarity to some packets in my possession. At the same time I saw one of the postoffice clerks, Page Stephens by name averring some of these packets, laying them in two piles or parcels—a large pile and a small pile—and I saw, at the same time, in the fire grate near by, a large quantity of similar packets or documents, which had been set fire to and were burning. I took one of the packets from the fire grate and examined it. It was a printed "speech of Hon John R Mitchell of Oregon, in the senate of the United States May 29, 1878," entitled "The Columbia River, Its Freedom must be Established, the Monopoly of the Oregon Steam Navigation Co. must be Broken, the Canal and Locks at the Cascades must be Completed." This packet had been sealed and franked and endorsed as hereinbefore described. I asked Page Stephens, the clerk aforesaid, why he was assorting these speeches, and why some of the speeches were burned and destroyed instead of being delivered or sent to the person to whom addressed. He said in reply that the speeches or packets in the small pile were to be distributed to the persons to whom addressed who had postoffice boxes, and the speeches or packets in the large pile were to persons having no boxes, and would be burned, because "it would be an endless job to deliver them," and "they would do no good anyway." I then asked him (Stephens) why the packets or speeches that were not to be delivered were not put into the waste paper sack and disposed of as waste paper. He replied that "some one might see them and make a fuss about it."

Subsequently I spoke to Mr Van Houten, the market clerk, on the same subject and asked him why these speeches were not delivered the same as other matter was, and he said in reply, because the addresses on the speeches were taken from an old city directory—four or five years old—and that most of the persons addressed had moved away." This I know was not the case, because I saw many packets, or speeches or documents which appeared to be such, addressed to men whom I met and still meet frequently in this city and East Portland, and who then did and still do reside in this city and vicinity; among others were Meier & Frank, James Lotan, Thomas Parrott, and many others whose names I do not at this moment recall. Some of the speeches intended to be destroyed, according to Stephens' statement, I have now in my possession.

In the month of October, 1878, after Senator Mitchell's departure from Portland and just prior to the arrival of Postmaster General Keys, I again saw large quantities of similar packets burning in the fire grate in the postoffice; these packets were also sealed and were franked by J. H. Mitchell, U. S. senator, and endorsed as before described and were addressed to persons resident in Portland, Oregon, and vicinity. At various other times during the months of August, September and October, 1878, I saw packets or documents as before described, burning in the fire grate in the aforesaid postoffice. In the month of August, 1878, such packets were burned frequently, in large quantities, and almost continuously.

On the 24th of December, 1878, (to day) I saw, remaining undisturbed in the said postoffice, a sack about three-fourths full of such packets or documents in all respects similar to the packets hereinbefore described. Chittenden, deputy postmaster, called my attention to it, and said he did not know how it came there. I said to him that previously a lot of such packets or documents or speeches had been burned. He said yes, they were burned, but these had not been assorted. He told me to take this lot of packets or speeches down to Pittock's. Pittock buys all the waste paper from the postoffice.

I know from personal observation, that George E. Cole, the postmaster, was in the general office daily, and many times a day during the time that the packets or speeches hereinbefore specially described were burned, and that it would not have been possible for the said packets or speeches to have been destroyed, in the manner hereinbefore described, without his knowledge of the fact.

HILLERY CASON.

Subscribed and sworn to this 24th day of December, 1878.

THE BROWNSVILLE NARROW GAUGE.

Ellis G. Hughes, Esq., of this city, vice president of the Oregon Narrow Gauge Railroad, writes as follows, under date of Jan. 11, to the editor of the Brownsville Advertiser:

Dear Sir—Your favor of the 10th inst. making enquiries as to the use of Chinese labor in the construction of the Oregon Narrow Gauge road is at hand. It is our purpose to use almost the entire grading of the road with plows and scrapers, and in such work only white labor can be used as a matter of course, nor do we intend to use anything else in getting out ties, laying track, etc.; however, there are some parts of the work such as heavy cuts, etc which will probably be let by contract. When we let in this way we will let at the lowest prices attainable, and as a matter of course the contractor will employ such labor as he chooses.

The subscription at Salem is progressing favorably, and I doubt not will be closed in a few days, and at Lebanon, Scio and Aumsville, and elsewhere along the line the people are alive to the importance of the road to them and are earnestly pushing forward the good work, and I have no doubt will have their part of the subscription complete in a very short time.

We are now awaiting the completion of the subscription before ordering our material from the east, or asking any active steps in the construction of the road, it is desirable to have the entire matter closed without delay if it is desired to have the road completed this year, and if there has so far been only $10,000 subscribed for Brownsville and the surrounding country, it is necessary that it push the work with more energy if it would not be left in the race.

When it is considered that only half the subscription is a gift, each person should be willing to subscribe at least the amount that the road will benefit him in the next two years, as it will so reduce freights as to make at least 5 cents per bushel of all business in the price of each bushel of grain shipped and will at least enhance the value of lands one fourth. This should be easily ascertained and the subscription soon made up.

To this the Brownsville Advertiser adds editorially:

We hope by the next issue of this paper to give the amounts raised at the different points along the line of the road, and to be able to say that the necessary money has been promised, and the work of building the road will soon be commenced.

Weighing Grain

The Board of Trade at its meeting last Wednesday night received the following letter in regard to transactions in produce from the New York produce exchange

NEW YORK [illegible]

Board of Trade Chamber of Commerce

DEAR SIR—You are well aware that there has been an earnest desire [illegible] part of the commercial organizations to have the pound [illegible] as a unit of weight in the sale of [illegible] of produce and that larger transactions should be regulated by the number of pounds [illegible] thereof

We suppose it to be generally known that an act of parliament has been lately passed making the imperial pound [illegible] the pound avoirdupois the unit of all transactions by weight in Great Britain and leaving it with their Board of Trade to determine what multiples of the pound shall be adopted for general use there Of the 45 local Boards of Trade which have considered the subject 4 have voted in favor of the cental of 100 lb

This act will go into operation January 1 1879 and the present therefore seems an opportune time for making this system one of universal application throughout our own country

The fact that this mode of selling grain and meal was voluntarily adopted by the city of Liverpool more than twenty years ago and has since been maintained there without national legislation would show that like voluntary action on the part of our commercial cities is all that is needed for its successful establishment here

We write to ask the views of your board with reference to this subject and to inquire whether you would co operate with us in the movement to make all dealings in produce on our respective boards to be exclusively by weight, after some early date, that may be agreed upon for this purpose

Believing that the sentiment of this exchange is heartily in favor of such action we remain very respectfully yours,

ASA STEVENS
Chairman Committee on Trade

Domestic Produce

The produce market during the past week has been moderately active considering the fact that the supplies by one of the main arteries have been entirely shut off by the ice blockade Prices of all kinds of domestic products have maintained a steady tone, and buyers have taken most lots of leading staples quite freely Breadstuffs both in San Francisco and Liverpool, at latest advices were a turn easier but in the local market prices have not at all depreciated owing to the light receipts Quotations are about as last given though in some instances an advance of 1@2½ cents per cental has been paid for round lots Oats are still coming forward rather sparingly and prices are firm Potatoes are in only moderate supply and dealers stocks are a little short consumers paying from 90 cents to $1 per bushel Provisions remain dull and but little demand exists except for a tolerably fair local trade Dairy products are in light receipt but the demand for export being weak the local trade is fairly supplied and prices remain at the same figures last given

The following are the receipts of domestic produce for the week ending at noon to day and the total since Jan 1

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN,

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Difficult Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS

public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases Catarrh Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest by an entirely new system only known to himself Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs including Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all disease of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to per fect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE over most physicians—he can tell the patients disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This account in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps

Everything strictly confidential and honorable

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the first Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland requiring medical treatment of the proper kind who desire to consult with me will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so called Doctors through pretended friendship for the patients Look out for them they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M. BRENAN the Medical Lecturer and read his sign on his door

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN 18 1879

THE MORMON TEST CASE.

Much comment has been caused throughout the country by the decision of the supreme court of the United States against George Reynolds, the Utah polygamist The bearings of the decision on the fortunes of Mormonism are also being much discussed, and it is apparent from the flutter produced among the Mormons themselves that they consider the probable results quite serious. From the Salt Lake Tribune we have a history of the Reynolds case, which dates back to 1874. When the act of congress of that year (known as the Poland law) was passed, prescribing the mode of empanneling a jury and depriving Mormon probate courts of criminal jurisdiction, a way seemed to be opened to punish the hitherto defiant polygamists. A grand jury indicted several of the more prominent sinners, including this man Reynolds. The fact being communicated to Brigham Young, that wily old fox, to gain time and prevent action against others, including himself, sent a message to the grand jury that if they would stop proceedings at that point he was willing that good brother Reynolds should be tried on his indictment as a test case. He knew that years would elapse before a decision of the supreme court of the United States would be reached, and during that interval he trusted to his own ingenuity and corrupt use of money to circumvent the law. In due time the case of Reynolds came up for trial. But of course the Mormon witnesses knew nothing. Daniel H. Wells, who had performed the illicit marriage service, was put on the stand, but no testimony could be elicited from him. Orson Pratt, the church historian, knew nothing of the marriage records, the attendants in the the Endowment House were all afflicted with infirmity of memory: while the first wife and a number of her relatives could not say what relation the spiritual bride bore to the household. The United States marshal, Maxwell, by a neat piece of strategy, captured the second wife on the street, brought her into court before she had been "counseled," and this unsophisticated witness revealed the whole business. She admitted she had been married to the prisoner at the bar, and pointed out Wells as the man who had performed the ceremony. This blunder on the part of the spiritual bride was fatal; the jury returned a verdict of guilty, and Reynolds was sentenced to fine and imprisonment. The case was appealed to the supreme court of the territory, where the proceedings were set aside and the indictment quashed, on account of some informality, whereupon another indictment was found, and the case was started afresh. Then the same trouble was experienced in obtaining testimony. he woman who had indiscreetly blabbed upon the first trial was spirited away, but two witnesses who had heard her estimony were allowed to tell her story second hand. A verdict of guilty was the result An appeal followed to the supreme court of the United States, where the case slumbered for two years before the hearing could be had which confirmed the verdict. The Tribune says that "the holy priesthood, having some misgivings that this supreme tribunal might decide the case against them, have been whooping up the brethren and sisters to make small of the last chance, and more polygamous marriages have been perpetrated during this season of grace than ever before in the same length of time."

OBSERVATIONS ON TOPICS.

There is in Oregon any quantity of the best land in the world open to any one who will take it. It will produce such crops of potatoes as grow nowhere else. And potatoes are worth in Portland a dollar a bushel, and bring it here four years in five. THE OREGONIAN has reported he mar ke for many years and knows this. Yet we a old there are men here who can find no thing to do. They are mistaken. It don't take much capital. Start with an axe and a ho nd such stock of courage as every man w expects to do anything should have about him. There is no money to be found in the streets of Portland. But there is money in the soil which government invites every man to take. Declare your independence of the towns, and maintain it. It is weakness and folly to say it is impossible. What did the pioneers of the country do? It is easier now than then, because there are now a thousand helps and advantages which were not then to be had. No other capital is necessary than energy, industry and fortitude. If this is more capital than many possess they may be assured that on no less capital can they rely on laying the foundation of secure fortune. They who work merely for to day will do little or nothing. But they who build a foundation for ten or twenty years hence, and stick to their purpose, are the ones who will inherit success. For the great mass of us there is no shorter way. And this is the easiest of all ways when a man resolves upon it. It is not only the road to freedom, but is freedom itself. A man without means who spends his life about a town, is scourged daily by his necessities. He can become free by observing that government has land to give him, by studying THE OREGONIAN'S market reports which show that potatoes are worth a dollar a bushel almost every year and that most other products of the soil have a corresponding price, and by shouldering his axe and hoe and starting for his fortune. Don't say we don't know. We do, both from abundant experience and observation. If, however, any one says he can't, of course he can't. Whether one can or can't depends on how he looks at it, and on nothing else In this great field of activity there isn't any competition of Chinese labor, else potatoes wouldn't be a dollar a bushel.

People who write in the Standard are making a sad muddle of the postoffice controversy. "An Observer" says through that paper,—"In the editorial of THE OREGONIAN, Jan. 16, this language is used in reference to the expected change 'It is simply a fetch to brag about a change in the management which shall be strictly in Mitchell's political interest for the future' I believe this to be a gross misapprehension of the fact. The writer then proceeds to say that a rumor having arisen that Mr Cole was about to resign there was an effort to secure an expression from leading citizens in favor of Mr Chittenden, who has been a good and efficient officer, and that the whole thing was entirely unknown to Mitchell or to any of his active political friends. This betrays great simplicity. No one who doesn't look deeper than this will ever compete with Mitchell's political methods. Should Mr. Cole retire, Mr Chittenden will not be appointed postmaster, though he well deserves it. He is not a political worker. Mitchell's sole purpose in trying to get Cole out is to put in a man who will be active in support his political interests. In what THE OREGONIAN said, as quoted above, it did not refer at all to the effort made to recommend Mr Chittenden by citizens here, but to Mitchell's wish to cause the dismissal of Cole. The Standard editorially says: "How Mitchell can oppose the appointment of Mr. Chittenden is a matter which needs explanation." On his system no explanation is necessary. The matter is well enough understood now He wants active political workers, devoted to his personal interests in all the offices, and for the same reason that he will put out Mr Cole if he can he will prevent he appointment of Mr. Chittenden if he can.

We have the following query from Corvallis "Gen Grant was tendered the freedom of the city of Dublin. What does it mean There has been some discussion here about it" It is an expression for presenting a person with the citizenship of a city or town making him a freeman of it, or admitting him to the freedom of it. English towns were generally incorporated with letters patent from the crown, and these provided who the freemen of the town should be and how they might be made from time to time These freemen were the voters who elected the mayor, bailiffs and burgesses, and might themselves become such. They were generally the sons of freemen, natives of the town, or those who had earned the privilege of working at some trade or calling therein for a number of years, or such as might be chosen by the mayor nd burgesses. We have seen a citation from a case in the time of George third in which t was held that the freemen of the town of Northampton must be entitled, "by birth, or servitude, or election by the mayor anc burgesses," and that "a by-law which had een used for many years to the effect that the mayor and town clerk might admit,—elect,—persons to be freemen upon payment of ten pounds, or, if married to the daughter of a freeman, five pounds in cash, was an alteration of the constitution given by the crown and therefore void." Every town or city under charter was a close corporation, and only those could vote who were members of the corporation, or, to speak more plainly, who were stockholders in it. The phrase, 'freedom of the city,' has now become to a great extent one of courtesy. But it is a question whether we should not at this day be more careful who are made freemen —voters,—of our tax ridden cities.

It is rather a pity when a paper is so stupid that it is unable to see a point, even when there is involved in it something rather complimentary than otherwise to itself. Recently we quoted from the Salem Statesman a short paragraph in which the style of ce adopted by the Grover organs as against the report of the investigating committee, was rather cleverly satirized We printed the extract under the caption, "The way the 'organs' look at it,"—that is, of course, the organs of the Grover Chadwick regime. The Statesman editor, who is the only person extant who couldn't see the point, snappishly rejoins that THE OREGONIAN sought to "cast an insinuation" upon his paper by reprinting the paragraph under the caption above given, and says besides that the article from which it was clipped was a communication to the Statesman, and not an editorial, as "any nincompoop" ought to know. We accept the rebuke, because, as the article, though headed throughout, was a somewhat ingenious and lively one, we should have known it "was not editorial." It is hoped that the editor will be so far mollified by this apology as no longer to feel like doing any such dreadful thing as drink up Esil or eat a crocodile in his rage.

Congress last session appropriated one hundred thousand dollars to purchase the sets of volumes and the stereotyped plates of the old Congressional Globe, with a design of furnishing complete sets for the permanent libraries of the country. The appropriation was paid to a son of the old proprietor of the Globe, to whom the property belonged. And now it is found that a great swindle has been perpetrated, since but two sets of the volumes running down to the time when the stereotyping commenced can be found, and the plates of fifteen of the later volumes are wholly missing. There is no redress, because in the bill which was lobbied through specifications for complete sets were cunningly omitted, and the officials had to take the stuff as they found it. This job was urged upon congress many years before it was finally successful.

That organ of commercial and financial wisdom over which the "expert" presides says: "Silver is booming again, having gone up fifty pence per ounce in London on the 16th." That would make the silver dollar worth fully $1 75. As matter of fact, silver has risen about a half penny per ounce in London, which doesn't make the market "boom" to any great extent. At this moment the quantity of silver in the dollar is worth almost eight cents less than when the act of remonetization was passed.

Recently the Willamette Farmer has several times by indirection asserted that THE OREGONIAN prepares its market reports in the interest of a ring of Portland operators Since that paper has removed to Portland and become a weekly edition to the Bee and a sort of tender to the Mitchell political ring, the public will not consider its reputation for independence and veracity established on remarkably broad and deep foundations.

The San Francisco Chronicle speaks favorably of the idea of establishing a harbor of refuge at some point on the Oregon coast, but says "Senator Mitchell's character as a politician is not calculated to inspire confidence, either in or out of congress, that the appropriation he asks would be well and faithfully spent in the construction of the work."

There is a reason for the Mitchell organ's hostility to the present postoffice people When it was extorting money from officials it couldn't force anything out of them, and it would like to have men in the office who will respond The expense of the new editor's 'move' from Salem makes this all the more desirable.

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN 18, 1879.

CITY.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The election for three trustees of the Unitarian church on Tuesday evening last resulted in the choice of Theo Wygant, S. W. King and R. Welch. The trustees holding over are Messrs. Burrage, Reed, Ayers, Hodge, Kapus and Spaulding. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Eliot, made a report for the year ending January 1st, showing the various activities of the church to be in a healthy condition. The subscription toward meeting the obligations upon the new church has added $1,400 since the laying of the corner stone. The charitable fund has expended $135 during the year. There have been fifteen members added during the year, thirty-five baptisms of children, twenty marriage services and forty funerals. The society looks forward to occupying the church about the middle of April.

COULDN'T ANSWER.—On Thursday two inquisitive scholars in a certain class at one of our city schools inquired of a lady teacher what DD. stood for. The answer was of course given, Doctor of Divinity, but this did not seem to satisfy the enquirers, as they wanted to know what the "dd" stood for in the police reports, so many mentioned there every day in the papers. This was too much for the teacher, who turned away, at the same time saying, that she "didn't know," a fact.

UNION SERVICES AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.—Union meetings held during the week at the Y. M. C. A. have developed more than the usual interest. There will be a Union service of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Congregational churches to-morrow (Sunday) evening at the Congregational, and arrangements are perfected for an overflow meeting in the vestry. Come one and all, and bring with you your Gospel Hymns No. 1.

FROM ASTORIA.—At 9:30 A. M. yesterday Messrs. Trenchard & Upshur telegraphed as follows: Tide high; bar very rough; strong northwest wind; cloudy and rainy. The steamer Wonder arrived down yesterday morning with barge load for the Shenir. 4 P. M.—Light west wind; cloudy; tide low; bar very rough. The Oregon arrived down at 2 P. M., and will go to sea to-morrow morning. The Bradick Bay arrived down at 10 A. M.

SEVERELY BURNED.—Says the Forest Grove Independent: A little girl of J. D. Fleck's was severely burned during the cold weather. She was alone in the house when her clothing took fire, and before help reached her her clothes on the backside had burned through to the flesh. A space four inches wide the entire length of her back was burned to a crisp. Hopes are entertained of her recovery, but she is dangerously burned.

"TAKING" ENGINE HOUSES.—With his photographic apparatus Mr. Joseph Buchanel was out yesterday taking views of the several engine houses in Portland. From these photographic views wooden cuts will be made which are to adorn the pages of Samuel's Hot Shore. They will make a very creditable showing of the Portland Fire Department.

SOUND OVER.—Henry Coe, who was charged with the larceny of $40 from the pockets of an invalid guest of the Occidental Hotel, came up for examination yesterday afternoon before His Honor Judge Stearns in the police court, who, after hearing the testimony in the case, bound him over in $500 bail to await the action of the grand jury.

SOLD OUT.—The Peoples' Protective Transportation Co. have sold their steamers S. T. Church and McMinnville to the Willamette Locks and Transportation Co., and are now closing up their affairs through the Portland agent of the company, Mr. C. O. T. Williams.

THE MATINEE.—This afternoon's performance will be Mr. Piercy's last matinee. The "Two Orphans," in which he personates the cripple and the chevalier, will be produced. The theater will be comfortably warmed, so that ladies need not fear to take their little folks.

LODGE ORGANIZED.—W. R. Dunbar, G. W. C. T., on the 14th inst. organized a lodge of I. O. G. T. at Dufur in Wasco county. E. B. Dufur is W. C. T.; Drusilla Stackhouse, W. V. T.; O. E. Barnett, W. S.; G. Nedrow, P. W. C. T., and A. K. Dufur, lodge deputy.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—Friends of the temperance cause will remember the open air temperance meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms this evening. A very entertaining programme has been prepared. A cordial invitation is extended the public.

LETTERS.—The following letters remain uncalled for at the express office: A Glass, L. G. Hammond, Simply Mel, F. C. Middleton, Robert Thompson.

TO DUCK HUNTERS.—The Gazelle will leave foot of Alder street at 5 o'clock to-morrow morning for Willamette Slough. Return in the evening.

OUR JAIL SYSTEM.—Rev. Mr. Eliot will make this the theme of his evening discourse to-morrow at the Unitarian church.

SUPREME COURT.

SALEM Jan. 17.

Court met to-day pursuant to adjournment.

Present—All the justices.

Wm. D. Renshaw, appellant, vs Jacob Nash et al, respondents; appeal from Benton county. Argument concluded and cause submitted.

Jos. H. Beaty respondent, vs Henry Maxwell, appellant; appeal from Lane county. Appeal dismissed.

The court will hear no more cases, except three criminal cases set for hearing next week, until all cases heretofore submitted shall be disposed of, when the third district will be taken up. Due notice will be given as to when the court will be ready to hear argument in causes pending.

Adjourned till next Monday at 1:30 P. M.

UP THE COLUMBIA.

Dispatches from up the Columbia last evening at 6 o'clock indicate the following state of the weather:

Walla Walla—Cloudy; ther. 26°.

Wallula—Clear; ther. 22°; no wind; but little moving ice this afternoon.

Dalles—Cloudy; ther. 44°; up stream wind; river still blocked at bend below town

Celilo—Cloudy; ther. 42°; stiff up stream wind.

Umatilla—Cloudy; ther. 26°; calm; running ice diminishing.

AMUSEMENTS.

The drama of "Craigs Dhoul," which made such a decided hit at New Market theater on Thursday evening, will be repeated to night. This is one of the most pleasing plays which has been produced during Mr Piercy's engagement, and those who did not see him in one of his best characters had best call to attend to night. The box sheet opens at 8.

PERSONAL.

Fraser B. Sonnenfeld, for eight years past connected with the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, having every position of trust with credit to himself and profit to his company, has resigned as purser and has connected himself with the well known firm of H. Ackerman & Co., of this city.

O. P. BUSH.—Joseph Buchtel is at his well-known gallery, First and Morrison streets, and proposes to do photographic work in the most approved style. Call and see him.

MME DEMOREST'S ladies' shoulder braces, 75 cents each, also ladies' skirt suspenders, 371 cents each, at agency, Mrs. Chas Tichnor's, Portland, Oregon.

For a nice fitting and stylish suit, ladies be sure to call at the popular IXL, 151 Third st., near Morrison.

Ladies who want stylish ready made suits, call at Mrs. Pilger's, the leading dress maker of Portland.

For the Kidneys and Bladder, Damiana Bitters, Fleckenstein & Mayer are sole agents.

For information go to Oregon Intelligence Office, No. 213 First st., Price & Maxwell.

Dr. D. Siddall, Dentist; rooms over the bank, French's building, The Dalles, Or.

FOR CAPE, ASTORIA.—Connected with Peter Willamette, is a Ship Masters' Reading Room, where the latest shipping papers are on file. Also, Inward and Outward Bound List, Western Union Telegraph Office next door.

CORRESPONDENCE.

A WORTHY TRIBUTE TO A WORTHY MAN.

PORTLAND, Jan. 16, 1879.

Mr. John Maguire, Manager New Market Theater—DEAR SIR—Appreciating your ability and honesty in fully redeeming the promises made over three months ago of bringing to this city first class dramatic attractions, and your efforts—we may say successful—in presenting to the people of Portland a series of thoroughly first class performances; and esteeming highly your qualities as a gentleman and actor, and as a reliable man of business, we ask that you accept at the hands of the citizens of Portland generally and of ourselves a substantial benefit—the performance to occur at such time and place as may be to you convenient.

Very respectfully yours,

Mr. Maguire's Reply.

Gentlemen: Your numerously signed communication, in which you do me the honor of tendering a complimentary benefit, is at hand. With very great pride in being esteemed worthy of so signal a favor at your hands, and that my managerial efforts are so kindly appreciated by you, I respectfully accept your kind offer and will, with your permission, name Monday evening, January 20th, at New Market Theater. JOHN MAGUIRE.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MATTERS.

The minutes of the Sabbath school convention held Oct. 8th and 9th, 1878, will be issued in a few days. Its table of statistics will show full or partial reports from about 160 schools in Oregon, over 100 of which use the international series of lessons; seventy-seven teachers' meetings, and enrolled pupils 10,233, with average attendance of 7,642. Number of church members, 1,452; and conversions 165; number of teachers, 1,256, with an average of 70%; 47 report Sunday school libraries, of which 18 have 3,975 volumes, 65 have 4 717 Sunday school papers. Eight denominations are represented The reported expenses are $2 936 55.

The table for Washington territory reports 90 schools; 56 use international series; 3 hold teachers meetings; 4 139 pupils enrolled, with an average of 3,602; church members, 473, and conversions 58; teachers, 514 enrolled, with an average of 361; 32 report 2,030 volumes in libraries, and 34 report 1,412 Sunday school papers taken and expenses $81 52, representing seven denominations.

Only seven Sabbath schools have been reported from Idaho, two from Alaska and two from British Columbia, with an enrollment of 774, and an average of 6.3 pupils. Church members, 4, conversions, 66 teachers and 47 average, 520 volumes in libraries, 189 Sabbath school papers, $185 expenses, representing four denominations.

It will be seen from the tables that many of the reports are incomplete, and from three or four denominations none have yet been obtained.

Twenty one Sabbath schools have sent money to E. J. Northrup, Esq., treasurer, to help pay printing and other expenses. Seventeen have pledged aid for this purpose.

A proportion are number of copies of the minutes will be sent to every Sabbath school which sends us cash or postage stamps to pay our bills.

A. J. Sutherland to A. Goodnough lots 1 and 2 in block 41, Holladay's addition—$175.

Don't forget to call to day and take a sitting at Abell's. You know it is best to do to-day what might be done to-morrow.

Dr. D. H. McLennan, test and business medium. Wonderful tests with names given. Communications strictly private. 153 Fourth street, corner of Morrison.

MASQUERADE COSTUMES.—The cheapest place to buy your masks, or rent your masquerade suits, or buy your trimmings, is at Mrs. Chas. Tichner's, corner of First and Yamhill streets, Portland, Or. Send stamps for price list.

MY POOR DARLING WIFE is suffering with another of those terrible billious headaches. What shall I get to relieve her? Others: The Oregon Blood Purifier cured Mrs. C., and I must go down to Pfunder's and get a bottle immediately.

CATARRH.—This most prevalent and least understood of all diseases is most skillfully treated and permanently cured by Dr. James Keck, 135 First street, Portland, Or. Call and see the Doctor if you have Catarrh. He charges nothing for consultation

IN A STATE OF SIEGE.—The public have found where to get furniture, elegant substantial and cheap, and are flocking to Edwards & Birmingham's, where everything to make a home comfortable can be found. Come one come all! Corner Second and Yamhill streets, up stairs.

It is really surprising how people will continue to suffer month after month and year after year from gravel, neuralgia, rheumatism and sick headache, when the cause of these terrible diseases is often removed at once by a course of that wonderful remedy, Frese's Hamburg Tea. Its use is always beneficial to the old and young, and for children it is the most popular medicine known.

"THE CREATION."

SECOND CONCERT OF THE HANDEL AND HAYDN SOCIETY—A GRAND SUCCESS.

Portland has not been noted hitherto specially for its musical talent, though singers, and good ones too, have no been so rare. But there has been, as we must admit, but few attempts to awaken musical enthusiasm or attract public attention to the heavenly art. Some months since Mr. W. H. Kinross located in the city, and being a thorough musician as well as a great lover of music for its sake alone, he at once undertook the task of organizing a class and getting the talent of the city together for mutual improvement and for general instruction. His success has been very encouraging, and to-day there is more interest taken in music in Portland than ever before—a fact which is very greatly due to Mr. Kinross' efforts. He was the organizer of the Handel and Haydn Society, which gave its second concert at New Market Theater last evening to as large and as respectable an audience as ever gathered at that place. The programme embraced the greatest oratorio of the great composer, Haydn, "Creation," a grand composition, in the sublimity of its plot and conception and great in wonderful skill with which it is written. To say that the society did full justice to all the parts might be taken by the musical experts as saying too much for "Creation" is not a piece of music to be picked up and well rendered by any but the best musicians and they even could not bring out the grand and beautiful passages which it contains without careful study. Full two hours were occupied in the rendition of the piece, and the appreciation of the efforts of the singers was shown by frequent applause by the audience. The leading vocal parts were taken by Miss Cora Packard, Mrs. Cruzan, Mrs G Parrish and Messrs Johnson, Atkinson and Franklin. These ladies and gentlemen are among the best singers in the state, and under Mr Kinross' training they severally sustained the difficult parts assigned them in a most excellent manner. The duets by Mrs Cruzan as Eve, and Mr. Atkinson as Adam, were beautifully sung, and constituted, perhaps, the most attractive portion of the entertainment. Miss Packard, as Gabriel, showed a voice possessed of great sweetness and flexibility, and well cultivated, and Mrs Parrish, who, in addition to being what some call a natural singer, has a voice of great compass and rare richness and pathos, and her rendition of Gabriel in the second part was excellent. Messrs Franklin and Johnson as Uriel in the first and second parts, respectively, showed appreciation of the intricacies of the part and rendered in a very interesting manner. The chorusses were very good as to time and harmony, and the able conductor, Mr. Kinross, can flatter himself that although, as he stated last evening, another class of music would probably suit Portland people better than "Creation," the audience had no fault to find with the entertainment as a whole. The instrumental music was by no means an unimportant part of the exercises, and to say that with Prof. Vinton at the piano, Messrs. Frank, Gill, Kay and Timm, violins, Mr Van Osten, viololi; Dr. Rex, cello; Messrs. Hegele and Yost, double bass, Mr. Lawrence, clarionet, Messrs White and Talbot, horns, Messrs. Blankholm and Stowasser, French horns, and Mr. Campion the trombone, is a sufficient guaranty that the instrumental part was grand in every sense in which the word can be applied to music. At the society's next concert, as given in a few months, Wallace's celebrated opera of Marliana will probably be given

RT. REV. CHAS. J. SEGHERS.

The Catholic Sentinel has the following in reference to Bishop Seghers who is soon to come to Portland to enter upon his new field of labor as coadjutor to the venerable Archbishop F. N. Blanchett:

Bishop Seghers left Victoria on the 31 inst., on board a sailing vessel, for the purpose of visiting the missionary Indians on the western coast of Vancouver Island, and on his return, in about a month, he will make preparations for his final departure from the scenes of his first Episcopal labors, and where he is beloved by people of every rank, and of all religious persuasions, and probability Bishop Seghers will arrive in Portland about the middle of February.

A late issue of the Victoria Colonist contains the following:

His Lordship Bishop Seghers has been appointed to the archbishopric of Emesa, Asiatic Turkey, in partibus infidelium. His lordship will shortly leave for Oregon, to act as coadjutor to Archbishop Blanchet, with right of succession; but previous to his departure he will deliver a valedictory sermon to his congregation, by whom he is greatly beloved. To understand the meaning of his lordship's appointment to the archbishopric of Emesa, it is necessary to know that it is the practice of the Catholic Church to appoint dignitaries to the sees of those ancient Catholic dioceses which are now under the domination of infidels, and the object of the Church in doing so is to preserve the episcopal succession in those sees. The prelates thus appointed are dispensed from the obligation of residing in their dioceses, and it is in consequence of this dispensation that his lordship, Right Rev. Seghers, will reside at Portland, Oregon.

WEST SIDE SPEAKS.

PORTLAND, Jan 17, 1879.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN.

In a communication in this morning's OREGONIAN—from Mr. Miller in relation to the location of the "fair grounds"—he says that there is no ground can be had on the west side of the river that is suitable or can be had at a fair price. In this Mr. Miller is mistaken. There is a tract of land on the west side that can be had at a reasonable price. There is about 200 acres of land on the donation land claims of Kennedy and Tice, about three miles southwest of the city limits, with plenty of running water, and there is a good graded road nearly completed which leads from the city to this land. It is located near "Slavin's" on the "west side" road. No ferry to cross, and no tolls to pay. This city needs a location for the "fair grounds" that is accessible to the people at as little expense as possible. The committee who have this matter in charge can obtain all information from Mr. Slavin, who will take pleasure in pointing out the ground proposed. The land can be purchased at very low rates and long time given if required in which to make payment. The timber on this land will pay the expenses of clearing and grading and putting in good condition—and the land on the west side can be purchased for less than one third what is agreed to be paid for land for the purpose on the east side. For Dyspepsia, Damiana Bitters. Fleckenstein & Mayer are sole agents.

Just received per steamer Oregon direct from New York, a new stock of walking suits at Mrs. Ach's, corner Second and Morrison.

Dr. H. F. Adams will remain at the St Charles hotel until further notice. Dr Adams is a regular physician, also an old army surgeon; a man of experience and good judgment. Dr. Adams gives special attention to diseases of the eye and ear, throat, lungs, and all diseases of the respiratory organs. Dr. Adams invites all who are afflicted to call on him and be satisfied, however complicated the case may be. Consultation free.

OREGON.

Lewisville has a new store.

Coos county owes about $12,000.

Jim Keeney will start a brewery at Brownsville.

Cresswell has a blue ribbon club of sixty members.

The Dallas Itemizer is severe on traveling humbug shows.

The State Temperance Alliance meets at Albany Feb 19th.

There has not been a single case of diphtheria in Coos county.

Lish Applegate has "thrown up" his green-back organ at Albany.

Mrs. John Hazleman died at Salem on the 15th, of consumption.

The Statesman wants a lot of worthless Indians around Salem taken away.

It was six degrees colder at Albany during the recent freeze than in this city.

The Albany Democrat says that graves are frequently robbed in that section.

Elder C. R. Reed, formerly of Eugene City, is now pastor of the Baptist church at Dallas.

A little son of H. Haas, of Salem, accidentally shot himself in the hand a few days ago.

The telegraph office at Phœnix is now in working order with Miss Laura Sergent as operator.

Wm. A. Cox, an Albany contractor, fell from a brick building a few days ago, and was painfully bruised.

The steamboat Champion became disabled by striking a snag, a short distance above Albany a few days ago. Her passengers were taken to that city in a skiff.

T. N. Snell, a merchant at Sheridan, has received a letter from St. Louis announcing the death of an aunt, and that by it he became the possessor of an estate valued at $40,000.

The O. & C. Stage Company have placed a half daily line of stages on their route between Roseburg and Canyonville. With this addition they can now carry all the mail passing over the route.

Steps have been taken to procure an extension of the Table Rock mail route 12 miles further to Thomas' sawmill. The extension is much needed, and will accommodate a large number of citizens who are without mail facilities.

Yamhill is again ahead. The deputy treasurer paid over to the state treasurer the sum of $17,097 67. This includes the total amount of this year's taxes, which amounted to $16,761 99, the rest being delinquent from last year. This is the first county that has paid her taxes in full.

Albany Democrat: On Saturday, January 4th, two of the Settlemiers' sawmill hands got on a jam in Lebanon, and in going home in the evening a row occurred, in which one was severely stabbed in the groin. He bled very profusely, but being a large, strong man he has nearly recovered from the effects of the wound already. The man who flourished the knife was cleared, as usual.

A Monroe correspondent writing on the 13th inst. says: Last Saturday, between 10 and 11 A. M., Mrs. Charles Banton committed self murder by hanging. She got breakfast for the family and Mr. B. went out to plow. While thus engaged his little daughter came to him screaming that her mother was hanging in the house. He told her to cut her down, which she did at once; but on the arrival of Mr. B. she was dead. She leaves a family of five children, the youngest two months old. She was buried Sunday.

Salem Statesman: The subject of a narrow gauge railroad from Springfield to Salem seems to be getting pretty thoroughly discussed in Linn and Marion counties. Meetings are being held at all the towns, and the farmers are really beginning to come to the conclusion that we must have this road, and ere long we expect to see the line surveyed and work commenced in real earnest. A meeting was held at Crawfordsville on the 11th inst., and considerable interest shown. After the meeting a subscription of something over $500 was taken up. This makes over $3,000 from Crawfordsville and vicinity.

The Jacksonville Sentinel reports that on the evening of the 10th inst. a man named Eri Sebring was shot and killed on Jackass creek, a few miles from Jacksonville, by Samuel Rath. On the morning of the 10th Rath and an Indian woman who lived with him as his mistress had some trouble, and the latter went to Sebring's house for protection. At about dusk Rath and an Indian named Steve went to Sebring's house and tried to get her to leave with them, but she refused to do it. Rath was armed with a rifle, and when Sebring remonstrated with him about his conduct he pointed the gun at him, threateningly saying that he was going to kill somebody. Sebring said, "Why, Sam, you would not kill me, would you?" Rath replied "No," and hardly were the words uttered when he shot Sebring, the ball striking him just below the left nipple, glancing upward above the heart and inflicting a mortal wound. He was buried on Sunday. Rath and his Indian accomplice are under arrest.

A senator at Washington says, "No man and his family ever enjoyed the presidency and the White House so much as Hayes and his family do." To them the whole thing is like the first reading of 'Robinson Crusoe' to a boy, or a first jack-knife or a first pair of boots. They are an innocent, harmless people, and if they gush a little and give it away, it is only because they are a little callow and green.

CATARRH.

DR F. D. JOHNSON, of San Francisco, who is now in Portland and has become a resident of this city, is certainly meeting with marked success in his specialty of treating Catarrh. He has now over one hundred and fifty cases under his skillful treatment, and he has certainly become conqueror of this national disease, as he has many brilliant testimonials from some of the first citizens of Portland. This is what Portland has long needed. He does not approve of advertising, as many have who have been before him, but proposes to let the work prove itself. The doctor's residence is 148 Morrison street, and any order received through the postoffice will meet with prompt attention. Consult him.

To Physicians and Patients.

Call on Dr. Edward Henderson, Vitapathic Physician, N. E. corner First and Yamhill street, Portland, and have an Electrical Organal Diagnosis made, which never fails to locate disease of any of the vital organs. Physicians, no matter how skillful, cannot always determine the exact location of disease until, in too many cases, it is beyond control. Dr. Henderson also cures all manner of disease by the use of Magnetism, Magnetic Herbal remedies and Electricity, and is remarkably successful in treating most of the so called surgical diseases without the use of the knife or other surgical instrument.

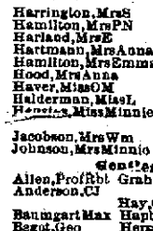
GEO. E. COLE, P. M.



I firmly believe Fellows' Hypophosphites has done more good than any medicine yet discovered in the cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough and kindred diseases.

W. H. THOMPSON,
Telegraph Station,
Harbour Grace, Newfoundland.

Persons suffering from impure blood, or whose health is giving away, either as ministers or those who study closely, will find Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites the material to build them up, and the tonic to keep them there.

Pugwash, N. H. DR. CLAY.

Each effort of the mind, every act of the body, will extract a volume of nervous element in proportion to the magnitude of the thought or action, and since Fellows' Hypophosphites really will supply the vis vitæ to the body, it must support the human mechanism successfully after the vigor of youth is passed.

DR. P. M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Private Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS

public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself. Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success, not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of, and never fails to give relief at once, and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES

to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints, and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE

over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

DR. BRENAN

will send to those living at a distance and who can not well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally, and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments, to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps.

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify.

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so-called Doctors, through pretended friendship for the patient. Look out for them; they are knaves, prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M. BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door.
